BIO

Aleksi Campagne is a 25-year-old singer/songwriter and multi-instrumentalist from Montreal, now living in New York. His music blends his folk roots with his jazz training, which combined with the avant-garde distortion pedals on his violin, make for wickedly catchy dancing anthems.

Aleksi released his Debut Album in Montreal on April 5th 2018, and you can read more on that and his background in The Montreal Gazette or at Forget the Box.

Much like the eclectic arts scene of his hometown, Aleksí continues to push his musical boundaries. His virtuosic violin style has been compared to that of Andrew Bird and he has a voice that lends homage to R&B legend Sam Cooke—in fact, his new song Sweet Talk pays tribute to Cook himself. Aleksí's eclectic folk sound and heartfelt lyrics have been known to move audiences from Vancouver to Red Rock to Montreal.

His latest project is a four piece band, made up of some of the finest young musicians Montreal has to offer, Stephane Krims (Bass), Aaron Dolman (drums) and Zach Bachand (guitar). In the summer of 2017, Aleksí and his band toured across western Canada, hitting Farm Fest Terre Ferme in southern Saskatchewan, Regina, Winnipeg and Folk on the Rock Festival in Red Rock Ontario.
